

COUPLE 53:
Paul Evans, 28,
and Deborah Butterworth, 23,
(Colwyn Heights)

DEBORAH opened a new business, then became pregnant. Illness put her and the baby's life in danger, but Nick was born healthy in January. She says Paul is the "best dad" but finding money for a wedding is a struggle

VOTE: 53

COUPLE 59:
Elinor Wyn
Davies, 25, and
Gethin Ellis, 32,
(Corwen)

ELINOR and Gethin's commitment to each other is 110%, according to their family who say there has always been a natural chemistry between them: "They are best friends, sharing the same interests, a very special couple."

VOTE: 59

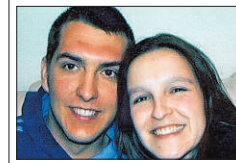

COUPLE 65:
Lesley Griffiths,
26, and Bryn
Roberts, 32,
(Holywell)

LESLEY and Bryn fell in love on sight. For two years they did not spend a day apart. Now with a daughter, and another baby on the way, they long for a wedding to complete the romantic picture.

VOTE: 65

COUPLE 71:
Robert Evans,
24 and Sharon
Edwards, 23,
(Wrexham)

A LUXURY wedding is beyond the wildest dreams of Sharon and Robert, who say their budget makes it an impracticality. "To win would be the icing on the cake to our happy and exciting three year engagement."

VOTE: 71

COUPLE 54:
Sharon Orritt,
39, and Robert
Parry, 52,
(Caernarfon)

SHARON and Robert have three children and a large house to pay for. Sharon's mum, Ann, says: "They are a special couple, always supportive to us as a family. I would love to see them have a fabulous wedding."

VOTE: 54

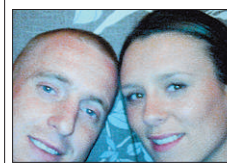

COUPLE 60:
Wenda Roberts,
28, and Eifion
Roberts, 36,
(Betws y Coed)

WENDA and Eifion say: "Winning a luxury wedding would be like winning the lottery for us." They want nothing more than to be married in front of their two daughters, family and friends on a joy-filled day.

VOTE: 60

COUPLE 66:
Amy Jones, 25,
and James
Crossley, 26,
(Towyn/Kimnel B)

AMY and James considered marrying abroad to cut down on costs, but it would mean their frail grandparents couldn't attend. So they are saving to afford to marry at home. "Winning means we can fulfil our dream," says Amy.

VOTE: 66

COUPLE 72:
Michelle Beck,
23, and Wayne
Brennan, 24,
(Wrexham/Ruthin)

MICHELLE and Wayne are saving for a house, so paying for a wedding seems impossible for the couple who have been together two years. "Without help we can't afford to marry for years. Winning would be wonderful," says Michelle.

VOTE: 72

COUPLE 55:
Elen Edwards,
33 and Dyfrig
Howatson, 49,
(Abergele)

ELEN lost both parents in the last four years. Dyfrig says not having them to share the day is painful. "Being able to offer Elen a complete package would be magnificent and my chance to make her smile," he said.

VOTE: 55

COUPLE 61:
Maria Swift, 29,
and James
Rowlands, 32,
(Rhyl)

THEY'VE been together 15 years and have two children, Jodie and Jake, but Maria and James can't afford a wedding celebration after an accident left Maria unable to work. She says: "My dearest wish is to marry James."

VOTE: 61

COUPLE 67:
Rwth Griffith,
29, and Ewan
Colquhoun, 32,
(Llanfairpwll)

EWAN whisked Anglesey teacher Rwth away to Dublin to propose. Now Bedford-based Ewan is looking for a job in Wales so they can be together more often. Paying for separate accommodation makes it difficult to afford a wedding.

VOTE: 67

COUPLE 73:
Carly Styles, 21,
and Daniel
Nuttall, 22,
(Corwen/St Asaph)

DANIEL'S just finished university studies to qualify in teaching and Carly soon starts nurse training. The couple who are saving for a home of their own say: "Money will be tight for a few years. We'd be thrilled to win."

VOTE: 73

COUPLE 56:
Amanda Allen,
26, and Mark
Williams, 35,
(Old Colwyn)

AMANDA and Mark's wedding was postponed when their twins were born prematurely. One died at 19 days old. Surviving son, Rhys, has cerebral palsy and Amanda gave up work to be with him, meaning they can't afford their dream of marrying.

VOTE: 56

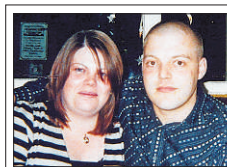

COUPLE 62:
Rebecca
Fellows, 23, and
Stuart Jones,
24, (Llandudno)

STUART and Rebecca have been through four difficult years since Stuart was diagnosed with a brain tumour. With daughter Ellie to care for, they are thrilled his scan is now clear. A fairytale wedding would be the best way to celebrate.

VOTE: 62

COUPLE 68:
Laura Martin,
29, and Alun
Yates, 28,
(Bala)

LAURA and her daughter moved from Scotland to be with Alun who she says is caring, loving and funny. A baby girl now completes the family. Laura says: "Getting married would make us more happy than words can say."

VOTE: 68

COUPLE 74:
Gemma
Roberts, 27, and
Leon Southgate,
27, (St Asaph)

LEON serenaded Gemma with Fields of Barley, aged 19, and she knew he was for her. Now they have a son, Samuel, and are saving for a house. They say: "A wedding like this would cement our family together perfectly."

VOTE: 74

COUPLE 57:
Ruth Barlow, 31,
and Dyfed
Jones, 36,
(Prestatyn)

WINNING would mean the world to Ruth who found happiness when she least expected. Mum to Georgia, she never thought she would find her soul-mate until she met Dyfed. Now they have a daughter together, Ffion.

VOTE: 57

COUPLE 63:
Wayne Roberts,
25, and Angela
Ellis, 23,
(Rhos on Sea)

A WEDDING party is just out of reach for Wayne and Angela who are saving hard for a house. Wayne's mum, Sharon, says: "They deserve a lucky break. Their love for each other is second to none."

VOTE: 63

COUPLE 69:
Lynne Williams,
31, and Alan
Taylor, 45,
(Caernarfon)

LYNNE and Alan, who have two children, had planned a wedding, but had to postpone when Alan was made redundant. The couple who have lived together seven years face a constant struggle to afford the high costs of a wedding.

VOTE: 69

COUPLE 75:
Matthew Owen,
28, and Joanne
Griffiths, 29,
(Oakenholt)

WITH a small household budget Joanne and Matthew can't afford a big wedding, but since Joanne's father was diagnosed with cancer it has been the couple's dream to marry. They'd love for Joanne's dad to give her away.

VOTE: 75

COUPLE 58:
Vanessa Holton,
25, and David
Johnston, 33,
(Prestatyn)

LIVING and working in separate towns, Vanessa and David can only steal a moment together at weekends while saving for their wedding. Vanessa's mum, Pauline, says: "It breaks my heart not being able to pay for their special day."

VOTE: 58

COUPLE 64:
Melvin Jones,
25, and Julie
Roberts, 25,
(Penmaenmawr)

MELVIN says Julie, mum of his two daughters, is his "one and only". The couple's birth dates are just a day apart. But wedding plans had to be put on the back burner as purse-strings are tight.

VOTE: 64

COUPLE 70:
Tina Jones, 22,
and Stewart
Hoyles, 31,
(Denbigh)

TINA and Stewart have been together six years and are now expecting a baby boy. Tina's mum, Menna, says: "They make such a lovely couple and have so much love for each other, this would be a perfect present."
