Stars light up town for festivities

Switched on: Jason Donovan switches on the Rhyl Christmas Lights. Pictured right, Andy Abraham joins the line-up for Rhyl's Christmas Pops on December 7.

FROM festive entertainment to Christmas shopping, the lively seaside resort of Rhyl has everything on your wish list!

A bustling destination whatever the season, Rhyl is one of the region's most popular holiday resorts - not to mention a premier shopping destination - and at Christmas it really comes to life.

For those looking to fill their shopping baskets with presents and festive treats, Rhyl certainly doesn't disappoint and is home to a wide variety of retail outlets. Ranging from national chain stores to an assortment of excellent independent shops and stalls, Rhyl boasts a variety of thriving shopping streets as well as an indoor shopping centre, a permanent market and two nearby retail parks filled with gifts galore.

Welcoming cafes, pubs, takeaways and restaurants are also in abundance in Rhyl. Or if it's a touch of TLC you're searching for, the town has an array of expert beauty salons and hairdressers ready to pamper your festive stresses away.

What's more, Rhyl's renowned for its superb festive entertainment and has something for the whole family this Yuletide. On December 7, Rhyl's Christmas Pops at St Thomas' Church is expected to pull in the crowds with a stellar line-up including X-Factor's Andy Abraham as well as a number of local acts, while at Rhyl Library,

Museum and Art Centre kids will love getting the glitter out and making their own festive decorations on December 13.

The Rhyl Silver Band will also be on hand to add some Christmas cheer to festive shoppers along the High Street on December 6 and 20 and will be performing a selection of your favourite Christmas tunes, plus on December 13 visitors will travel back in time with Victorian stories, costume and music also on the High Street.

In addition, the Pavilion Theatre also has an excellent production of Sleeping Beauty, starring 90s pop sensation and West End star Sonia, from December 12 to January 10.

So whether you're looking for a festive day out for the whole family or need a helping hand with your Christmas shopping put Rhyl at the top of your Christmas list.
