More than just the motorway village

A view through 'old Outlane' and (inset) the same view today. Who the pig belongs to, and why it's in the middle of the road, remains a mystery

THE Outlane district and beyond - is today a popular residential area but there is much more to this neighbourhood than housing.

Dominated, of course, by the M62 motorway opened in October 1971, Outlane is the former home of the Whitaker equestrian family and also of World Cup winner, former England footballer Ray Wilson who lived in the area many years.

Today the area is also home to The Old Golf House hotel and Outlane Golf Club which bring trade and business into the area.

Outlane and beyond, including Elland, is also home to numerous other shops and businesses which offer a variety of services.

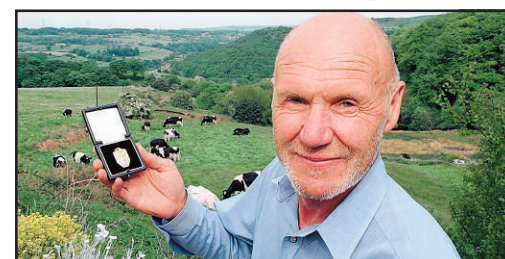

Nail Zone, in Victoria Road, Elland, is run by Olivia Milnes who took over the business in May this year and has refurbished the salon. Olivia has been in the nail and beauty business over nine years and has numerous accreditations.

Also in Elland is Lippylicious Tea Room in Victoria Road. All cakes are made with natural ingredients including free range eggs.

The same high standard comes out of the ovens and cakes are carefully hand decorated. Celebration cakes and cupcakes can also be ordered for birthdays, weddings and anniversaries etc.

Based in West Vale is Hastings O'Loughlin, a firm of chartered financial planners who pride themselves on offering an honest, friendly and reliable service.

Directors Francesca O'Loughlin and Susan West have a combined experience of over 30 years in the industry. They are delighted to work with people who value the benefits of independent financial advice from a local firm.
