New carpet warehouse opening soon

If you fancy sprucing up your home ready for Christmas, then where better to start than with new flooring.

To find inspiration for that new carpet, wood or laminate flooring, why not take a look at a new carpet warehouse which is due to open any day in Savile Street, Milnsbridge as part of Huddersfield Carpet Centre, based just a few minutes up the road in Scar Lane.

The new warehouse facility will be home to at least 200 rolls of quality carpet and thousands of roll ends and room sized remnants. The warehouse will be open six days a week and run alongside the main Huddersfield Carpet Centre showroom, where thousands of local customers have bought their carpets and other flooring for many years.

Remnants at the new warehouse, which has plenty of parking right outside, will be priced from £5 for a bathroom sized piece of carpet. Also available will be top quality living room sizes remnants from as little as £30. There's sure to be plenty of choice with patterns, plains, textured neutral carpets and a range of other flooring ideas.

Back at the 3,000 sq ft Scar Lane showroom, customers new and old are guaranteed the same high standards they have come to expect from this long established carpet specialist. With top names including Brintons, Ulster, Axminster Carpets Ltd, Victoria Carpets and Karndean International, there's sure to be something that takes your fancy to make your home complete.

Karndean specialises in modern creative laminate flooring which is perfect for a kitchen, bathroom or conservatory.

Still popular for the modern home are neutral colours but Huddersfield Carpet Centre has plenty to suit all tastes, whether contemporary or more traditional. Why not take a look and rest assured that all measuring and fitting will be to the highest standard?

Albert Franks, who heads the family business, said: "Many people think that just because we have been established a long time, we are expensive.

■ IDEAS: A great choice of both carpets and laminate flooring is now available at Huddersfield Carpet Centre and also at the new warehouse, opening any day in Savile Street, Milnsbridge

"This is far from the case with carpets and floor coverings to suit all budgets. We are based in Milnsbridge, not Knightsbridge and cater for working class people right here in Yorkshire. "We specialise in carpets and floor coverings. We don't do furniture or accessories, just carpets."
