WHAT DOES IT TAKE TO BE HUDDERSFIELD'S LEADING INDEPENDENT FURNITURE STORE?

- 1981: Husband and wife team Harry and Hilary Lindsay begin selling antique furniture, driven by old fashioned Yorkshire values.
- 1985: The business expands and moves to Byram Street.
- 1990: Harry opens the doors of Stanley Mill in Milnsbridge.
- 1996-99: Through word-of-mouth, demand exceeds expectation and the business doubles its floor space to take over the whole mill.
- 2000: Celebration time. The Millennium is ushered in and we sell our 10,000th piece of furniture.
- Harry and Hilary take a well deserved retirement but the family heritage continues with their son Ashley taking over as MD.
- 2004-2006: A new entrance is installed from the car park. Inside, the internal shop fit gathers pace with a new staircase and decor.
- 2007: The opening of the Rug Traders concession brings the largest selection of rugs under one roof to Huddersfield.
- 2008: Café Amore, the on-site Italian style coffee house opens. Customers enjoy freshly ground Cooper's Coffee, homemade cakes and fresh paninis.
- 2009: The range is widened to introduce quality soft furnishings, lighting and giftware - including Yankee Candle.
- 2010: Lindsay's secures the accounts for La-Z-Boy and G-Plan.
- 2011: We're bigger and better than ever with the same Yorkshire principles.
