

Don't lose your independence

Help from specialist local businesses

IF you're determined to keep your independence and stay in your own home as long as possible, there are several local businesses who can offer help and assistance.

These companies specialise in their particular field and are invaluable in getting you the help you need, whether you are elderly or have issues with mobility and getting around.

Even if you find it difficult to get out and about to a shop, there is help available on the internet and with home visits.

Local business are always willing to help people wherever they can.

Based in Huddersfield is The Pennine Hand & Grab Rail Fitting company, a small family-run business which specialises in rail fittings and a range of other mobility adaptations.

The company aims to allow local people to enjoy greater independence and a better quality of life within their own home.

Examples of their adaptations include bath seats and boards, staircase hand rails, bed rails, jar and can openers, tap turners and much more. Take a look at www.pennine-independent-living.co.uk or ring 01484 420341 for help and advice on the products now available.

Based in Paddock is Total Comfort, a local shop which specialises in high seat chairs, recliners and adjustable beds to make life easier.

Fully trained staff help customers choose the best chairs and beds to suit their needs and improve their mobility.

For anyone who has difficulty getting to the store in Paddock, Total Comfort offers a free courtesy car transport service to the shop in Market Street for anyone within a 10-mile radius. Alternatively staff will bring a range of chairs out to your home so you can choose in the comfort of your own surroundings.

A range of styles and colours is always available to suit customer preference.

Based in nearby Brighouse is Lazarus Mobility Ltd, a company which offers an extensive range of solutions for independent living.

All kinds of adaptations are available for all areas of the home and staff can help with all areas of life including eating, exercise, leisure, dressing, mobility etc.

A range of wheelchairs is also available to help get people out and about.

Special offers are available from time to time and items can also be bought from the website at www.lazarusmobility.co.uk
