If you are looking for a great place to shop, then look no further than Regent Street in Runcorn's old town - which has a lot to offer, and has always been a big attraction for locals.

One of the first businesses to stand out as you walk up Regent Street is Champagne & Roses bridal boutique, with its eye-catching display.

It is owned by Jean Miller, who offers Halton residents a more fashionable alternative to going on expensive, out-of-town trips in preparation for their big day.

Champagne & Roses stocks an excellent range of designer gowns, tiaras, jewellery, veils, shoes, prom and bridesmaid dresses.

Just across the road is Sathers Flowers, which has been serving the community since 1928. The present owners have had the shop for the last five years and are proud of the quality they maintain. They cater for all occasions and the choice and service is superb. Delivery covers Runcorn, Widnes and Warrington.

Then there is Lush, which is certainly worth a visit. This beauty and nail service is still only in its first year but doing really well. Owner Kay provides a warm welcome and all customers receive a free consultation.

Treatments on offer include a professional laser teeth whitening service, men's treatments and the new slimming clay wraps.

A range of products is available as are aromatherapy blends, tailor-made to suit client needs.

Kay offers pure indulgence, so you can relax and unwind, whatever treatment you require.

Across the road and next to Champagne & Roses is the dry cleaners, which this year celebrates its 10th anniversary. The service offered is second to none. The business specialises in hand-finished dry cleaning, which is carried out on the premises. Also available is an alteration and repair service, service washes, ironing and shoe repairs. On orders of £10 and over, there is free pick-up and delivery.

Call 01928 566652 for more information.

Just down from the dry cleaners is Runcorn Chiropody Clinic. New owner, Emma, could see the potential in this thriving street and decided to set up a business. Emma is an HPC registered podiatrist, so if you want to feel as though you are walking on air, make an appointment on 01928 576363.

Lavenders is a well established business in Regent Street, Runcorn, owner Shirley Tompest having been there for more than eight years.

This popular business provides a complete range of beauty, holistic and nail treatments and, the minute you walk through the door you feel relaxed as staff welcome you into this lovely atmosphere.

Premier Photographic, near the top of Regent Street, is owned by Steve Ashworth. Steve only opened in January although he has been in this business for more than 25 years - and his experience certainly shows.

Currently on offer is a free portrait sitting (including internet passport pictures) - you just pay for any prints that you require.

Steve has also introduced pamper makeovers and the before and after pictures are brilliant.

The shop has disabled access.

Here Comes the Bride offers a calligraphy service and can also design your order service booklet and wedding album.

And, whether it be weddings, portraits, christenings, functions, sports, commercial, architectural or PP pictures you want, don't do anything till you have spoken to Steve or visited his website www.premier-photographic.com

At the top of Regent Street you will find Reload Graphic Design - the best of the best.

Lee Rhodes, the owner, has been there for two years and his business is thriving beyond belief. The business offers graphic design, websites, dynamic content sites, signs, banners, vehicle graphics, logos and corporate images, and canvas prints.

Staff have the expertise, creativity and market awareness to get it right. Steve said: "We work with our clients at every stage, enabling them or their company to fulfil their vision."
