

Dazzle on your day

SUMMER is one of the most popular times of year for couples to get married.

Whether you're a wedding guest, the mother-of-the-bride or the happy couple themselves, there's always much to do in the run up to the big day. Current bridal trends include strapless gowns, bodices, and dresses with intricate detailing such as beading, ruffles, pleating or sequins. A key trend for style-savvy brides-to-be in summer 2008, includes splashes of bright colour such as icy blue, turquoise or passionate red against a classic white or ivory dress.

With the increased popularity of themed weddings, many brides are also choosing to carry the same colour throughout bridal flowers, mother of the bride outfits, bridesmaid dresses and men's cravats. Whatever style of dress you plump for, it's vital to feel confident, comfortable and attractive - so shop around, ask for professional advice from wedding shop assistants and try on a wide range of dresses to ensure you've found the right one for your shape, size, age and style.

Also, when you have your final dress fitting make sure you wear your bridal lingerie to ensure that whatever underwear you choose, it complements your dress, boosts your assets and your confidence.

From cakes to confetti, there's a lot to consider when planning a wedding. First thing's first, remember this is your day so ask for help from family and friends and don't let the event organisation ruin your special day. When choosing a venue, whether you're planning a traditional church wedding, a civil ceremony or a wedding abroad, consider the tone of your ceremony.

Do you want a formal day at a luxury country hotel, a relaxed ceremony on a tropical beach, or a lavish boutique wedding, with just a handful of close friends and family enjoying a no expense spared celebration?

When it comes to gifts, many couples prefer to register a wedding list with their favourite store, so guests can buy exactly what you need for your new life together.

Modern weddings are all about personal choice so whether you want to write your own vows, say 'I do' in a zoo, on a train or on a rollercoaster, have a unique cake or a BBQ wedding breakfast, nothing is impossible.

Pick a few aspects of your big day and make it your own.

However you choose to celebrate your special day, with a little imagination and forward planning you can achieve the wedding of your dreams.
