

A Taste of Home

recipe competition

Keen on cooking and have a favourite recipe you would like to share with fellow food lovers? If yes, why not enter our competition?

1st prize: A two night break at the luxurious Seaham Hall Hotel in County Durham with dinner on one night in the North East's only Michelin-starred restaurant, The White Room, and the chance to meet top celebrity chef, Kenny Atkinson.

Plus, £100 worth of gift vouchers, a Heighley Gate Food Hall Hamper and your recipe on the menu at the garden centre's restaurant for one week.

Two runners-up will each receive £100 worth of gift vouchers, a raised vegetable bed and a £50 gardening hamper.

The top three recipes will be made into recipe cards, which will be available* for a small donation with funds raised donated to St Oswald's Hospice.

Terms and conditions

Standard Trinity Mirror plc rules apply, available at www.journallive.co.uk/legal. Competition open to residents within the circulation area of The Journal. A full postcode list and footprint of the circulation can be found at www.journallive.co.uk/legal or available from Freepost NEA1676, Promotions, Groat Market, Newcastle, NE1 1BR. The Editor's decision is final. Entry forms must be received by Heighley Gate Nursery & Garden Centre or submitted via www.journallive.co.uk/taste no later than Friday, July 31, 2009 at 5pm. Submitted recipes may appear on The Journal Taste website for a limited period. Two night break at Seaham Hall is subject to availability and cannot be taken during Christmas and New Year. Must be claimed by Sunday, January 31, 2010. The recipe must be original and not taken from a published recipe book. Twelve recipes will be shortlisted on Wednesday 5th August. Judges are looking for recipes that champion North East food and heritage. Heighley Gate's Restaurant will prepare the shortlisted recipes to be judged by a taste panel on Wednesday 26th August at 11am. Winners will be notified by Friday, August 28, 2009.
